UD TO HOST 80 COLLEGES
AND UNIVERSITIES AT ARENA
COLLEGE NIGHT

DAYTON, Ohio, October 30, 1978 --- Myron Achbach, University of Dayton Director of Admissions, announced today that over 80 colleges and universities from 13 states will be represented at the annual UD Arena College Night program next week. The college night will be held on Wednesday, November 8, from 7:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. in the East and West concourse areas of the UD Arena. There is no admission charge and the event is open to all persons considering college attendance.

"The college night program gives students and their parents an opportunity to meet in a convenient setting with admissions officers of many different schools," explains Achbach. "Students can collect information from many colleges, some of which they may not have previously considered. Those students interested in specific schools can talk at length to trained admissions officers about requirements, courses of study, student life and financial aid. Although not designed to replace an actual campus visit, a college night can be a logical first step in the college selection process."

More than 50 Ohio colleges and universities will attend, as well as schools from 12 other states. Noted Catholic universities such as Marquette, St. Louis and Fordham are included, as are Wright State University, Sinclair Community College and the University of Dayton.

The University of Dayton Office of Financial Aid will provide counselors to assist students and parents in securing answers to their questions regarding financial assistance for college. Information on state and federal aid programs will be available.

The program traditionally attracts high school juniors and seniors and their parents. However, anyone considering college is welcome, and high school teachers and counselors are encouraged to attend.

The Arena doors will open at 7:30 p.m. on Wednesday, November 8.
